

Timothy Cull

Managing Director, Telecom Policy Services Ltd.

Tel: +44 (0) 7711 490702

Over 10 years experience as UK Policy Director, UK Government Relations for a major Telecommunications Manufacturer. Responsible for a wide range of regulatory and radio spectrum arrangements and the responses of that company to official consultations.

Over 15 years of practical experience in Conformity Assessment and Market Access matters for UK and the European region. This encompassed the entire scope of the operation from budgetary control through to order-entry process flows, including implementation through to completion of the project.

An experienced technical management professional leading engineering research and development teams for radio-communications terminals, especially for professional users.

An accomplished chairman of UK trade association committees and public speaker.

Has degree qualifications in Electrical Engineering and Maths (Reading), Kandiotti Prize winner.